

I am completely against the actions you are taking against freedom of speech on the airwaves of our great country. We are experiencing a period of over-reaction and social conservatism, and in three years when everyone relaxes over breasts and language, you will all look ridiculous with your current campaign.

Please stop the insanity that you are currently perpetuating.

Sincerely,
Brian Pfeffer