

I am an amateur radio operator, a member of US ARMY MARS and an operator the the NCS SHARES organization. Since most of the frequencies that BPL will use are in the range of the frequencies I would be using for emergency communications, I am concerned that interference would make it difficult or impossible to communicate under these cirbumstances. I am already hearing a sweep frequency interference on frequencies between 4416 and 4440 KHz in the daytime.