

Concerning Broadband Over Power Line; I live in the country outside the small town of Almont in Michigan. There is no cable out here and no high speed internet. We are relegated to slow dial-up modems. I think we could all benefit by BPL. I am pleased with your help thus far and hope that a ruling will be made soon so that we can get high speed internet.

Thank you for your help and encouragement.

Tony