

We are a small privately owned wireless internet service provider and would like to see more unlicensed spectrum in the MMDS/ITFS band that is available for our use. Something that is reserved for our industry would be nice to where a consumer could not knock our service out by something they can buy at the store be it a access point or phone or camera or whatever rf device they use. Thank You. John Buwa