

Are you crazy, just stupid, or in somebodies pocket to even be considering this lame brained ideas after it has been looked at and rejected in so many other countries. This has the possibility to affect 'ham' radio, AM, low chanelns of TV, cordless phone and so much more. And there is no way that most Americans want something in their homes that can both transmit or recieve. Just a baaaad idea.