

how quick we forget all the great good that ham radio operators have done for the world.we are far from being considered dead. but out of regard and respect,at least let us rest in peace. we would do the same for you. very respectfully , victor finegold