

This is an unnecessary and unneeded component of the internet. Fiber optics offers better bandwidth, better security and ZERO interference! BPL is no different than locating a 10 watt spark gap transmitter in everyone's basement. The electrical utilities have enough on their plate just producing and distributing power and even that is questionable. Please don't proceed with BPL, your commission is to protect the spectrum as well as allocate.