

I am hoping that BPL systems will be tested for RULES Compliance by an independent laboratory prior to initiation of service and interference mitigation must be available 24/7 and must be immediate upon receipt of the complaint. Users of BPL service must be given a notice that there is no guaranty of service in writing. I am not in favor of the BPL concept because the application of this service has huge potential interference problems to all airwave users around BPL frequencies.