

I am concerned that BPL will cause interference to existing communications and that there will be no way of turning it off when it interferes with emergency communications. There may be way of technically turning it off but business contracts and fear of lawsuits will make the vendors of BPL services unwilling to turn it off without a court order which cannot be obtained in a timely manner in the case of immediate emergency needs.