

As a licensed radio amateur. AB5GP, I am opposed to sending broadband RF through the power lines. This would cause severe broadband static (hiss) in the High Frequency (shortwave) bands, and effectively, making the bands unusable to Radio Amateur Operators when sending emergency traffic ,such as would be the case during a hurricane or tornado.