

BPL's spectrum interference cannot be contained. Cable system's ingress and egress is well known. How can the general public be assured this will not happen with BPL which is an unshielded environment? There should be more than just assurances given...the exact technical specifications for spectrum protection should be divulged.