

I am concerned over this as the possibility of interference with Amateur Radio frequencies as well as public service frequencies. I think that more more testing should take place before a final determination.