

I am against your proposed Broadband over powerlines (BPL) proposal. This would effectively kill all high frequency communications in the United States. Amateur radio operators provide a valuable service and use these frequencies extensively. If you wish to kill the amateur service then this is the way to do it. Amateurs provide emergency communications on these very frequencies during periods of distress. I hope that you reconsider your proposal and remove it from consideration.