

With regard to the BPL service there needs to be an effective way to remediate issues of interference to licensed services. It should be easy to identify the BPL source, easy to file a report, and quick to mitigate the interference problem. If not, we run the risk of creating serious interference problems for licensed services without recourse to quick resolution. I think that is an unacceptable situation.