

BPL is the single most destructive plan ever before the FCC. It presents vast HF broad spectrum elimination of two-way communication and SW listening. It also opens the door to strong single financial interests taking over Internet access and closing the free and open door that is the greatest strength of the Internet. FCC: stop this madness before you create a monster. Please remember, you represent people, not big business !!!!