

I am very concerned that BPL will cause the noise floor to increase and degrade VHF aviation comms as well as HF comms used by emergency service agencies as well as ham operators working with emergency services. In this time of increased need for emergency preparedness the trade off of decreased HF and VHF usefulness for the profit of the power companys that have poor records of noise reduction is not in the public interest.

F. V. Doerner, Capt. Eudora Fire Dept. Ret.