

I have concerns over the interference that BPL will cause to communications in certain parts of the spectrum that could hinder communications used by Amateur Radio, Police, Fire, Public Safety, NTIA, FEMA and the Armed Forces. Is the potential to hinder communications necessary emergency communications worth another broadband avenue? I would think the options available reach most if not all markets.