

I would like to voice my strong opposition to the FCC's position that would allow BPL. The interference caused by such a technology in the HF spectrum would likely be propagated 1000's of miles making that range of frequencies unusable to any local, state or federal governmental agency, including FEMA and the California Highway Patrol to name a few. The HF spectrum also must remain interference free for Homeland Security reasons.