

This proposal should be denied due to the interference it will have to existing radio services that the FCC is charged to protect. This has not work in Japan or Europe what , pray tell makes anyone think it will work here ??