

I understand how important BPL can be to our economy, but please don't allow providers to rush into this service without adequate testing. I am very concerned about the possibility of extreme interference to Amateur Radio, as well as the unintended consequences that always seem to come with a new technology. Please do not rubber stamp BPL just based on its feasibility. There is more to this issue than politics and money. Thank you.