

only reason this BPL is going to come into use is because the large corporations who are in the pockets of the administration (FCC, chairman Powell) who happens to be the son of Colin Powell, who has no interest in amateur radio that puts no money into the coffers of the politicians.