

The Commission should prohibit BPL. This is so because it causes extraordinary interference to amateur, commercial, and consumer devices. As a radio amateur, BPL greatly interferes emergency and non-emergency communication on bands assigned to our use. There are other methods of data communications that do not do cause such interference, which ought to be fostered by your Commission.