

As an amateur radio operator than enjoys weak signal work on the 10 and 6 meter bands I am very concerned that BPL may unfavorable impact this aspect of my hobby with interference that I won't be able to overcome.

I urge the Commission to look to effective alternatives that will not cause interference to the users of the HF amatuer bands. Thank you for your consideration.

Gerd H Henjes, III, W2ISB