

To whom it may concern. I am very worried about the potential interference that can be caused by BPL to all radio bands. If the FCC does allow this to take place, they need to make sure they have complete control of enforcement of regulations and not cower to demands of lobbyist of the companies that will run roughshod over anyone they can to make money. Gene James KE5ZR amatuer and business band radio operater.