

I am opposed to the FCC Broadband over Power Lines (BPL), for it will cause a lot of interference with Ham Radio Operations, too much power would interfere with Emergency Transmissions when needed also. It should be left open for Radio Transmissions so information can get through and information won't get out to others.

DeWayne Barton
KB9ATO