

I am an FCC licensed Amateur Radio Operator. Often times my communication is with weak signals near the noise level. With power lines surrounding my house, I feel that BPL will severely curtail my ability to communicate. The "hash" radiated by BPL will be heard around the world. What an embarrassment. I frequently operate at the power level of ONE watt and less. All services the using HF to communicate will be degraded. Thank you for listening. Joe
Fowler/KF6HAP/PG1227197