

I believe that the Commission should take action against "Broadband Over Power Line", as it will result in extraordinary interference for licensed amateur radio operators.