

As a shortwave listener for over 40 years, I am totally against the broadband over power line initiative currently under review. This rule will effectively end shortwave radio as an emergency public service and a rewarding hobby. I intend to also share my views with my congressman and senators. We have more information than we can use in today's America. Why add to the problem?