

In reference to the interference with licensed radio services from BPL, think about making the Power companies replace all of their lines with shielded cables in both their aerial and buried equipment. The Phone & Cable companies use them. This will really show if they care about interfering with other services or not!