

The noise and interference from BPL will make it almost imposible for any organization using HF frequency to pass traffic during normal and emergency operations. I am oppose to allowing broadband over power lines until the interference can be controlled.