

If BPL causes zero interference to existing HF radio communities, there is no reason to resist this technology. In demonstrations to date, however, BPL interference is so pervasive that routine use of the HF spectrum by licensed services is impossible. Please do not approve this technology until such interference is eliminated.