

As A CET in communications, FCC General Radiotelephone Holder, I believe the FCC is acting in total disregard of public safety, and is destroying a valuable natural resource in implementing BPL. I have worked as a broadcast engineer, and currently as a communications tech in the US Railroad Industry. This has far reaching effects that haven't even been discovered yet in interference potential.