

I am concerned about the spectrum interference that will result should GPL be implemented. I obtained my amateur license (for the second time) mainly for the much talk natural catastrophies that may soon come about. WE need a 'clean' HF spectrum to communicate especially with LOW POWER battery equipment.