

I am concerned, as a citizen and ham radio operator (KG6PHS), about reports of serious interference to our vital HF bands from current BPL tests. Using long runs of unshielded wires for this service looks unworkable, from the reports. I hope that other alternatives for broadband are seriously considered, and our important long-range HF bands are not threatened by such interference, as Part 15 of the rules requires.