

I am opposed to the authorization of Broadband Over Power Line concept until it RF interference standards can be specifically addressed. It appears, unless power cables are buried, that Broadband Over Power Lines seriously interferes with H.F. emergency communication systems.