

As both a licensed radio operator (KB3EKH), and a computer networking professional, I feel that the potential for interference that would be caused implementing BPL out ways any benefit that might be gained. I would hope that the FCC would find this as well, and stop the BPL before it gets completely out of hand.

Thank you for your time.