

Dear Sir Or Madam,

We at Finesse Wireless have performed an analysis of the interference that can be expected from and to the G and H blocks if allocated and are of the opinion that the key interference will be 3rd order intermodulation products. WE are submitting this exhibit for review and comment of the wireless community. The good news is that there is a solution.