

We need this spectrum to provide sufficient coverage of broadband service to urban and rural areas. We need spectrum allotted to only outdoor wireless provider deployments to eliminate interference from common household devices.