

In my work as administrator for a non-profit wireless network providing high-speed access to rural areas, I have encountered frequent problems with spectrum crowding in the 2.4 and 5.8 unlicensed ranges. To provide all the wireless operators in this area with reliable connections, we need more unlicensed ranges. 3650-3700 would be great, due to its high-speed capacity and its potential for NLOS.