

I am a ham radio operator and I also enjoy listening to short wave radio broadcasts I have not yet heard BPL interference as it must not be in this area yet, but if it is that intrusive on that much bandwidth and space then there has to be a better way of making Broadband internet available.