

I want to express my opinion about the proposed rules regarding the new band for fm radio. It is my understanding this could put stations like klove off the air. My family listens to the inspirational music and news daily. It is also one of the few stations we can listen to without worrying about objectionable lyrics.

Pls consider my comments and as I'm sure thousands of others like me and my family.

Thank you